Among the literary names connected with Crawfordsville are Meredith Nicholson, Maurice Thompson, Mary Hannah Krout, Carolyn Krout, and Kenyon Nicholson. The greatest literary name, however, is that of Lew Wallace, author of the immortal Ben Hur and Prince of India. The study of this great writer, soldier, and diplomat stands today on the spacious grounds where it was constructed during his lifetime. We pay tribute to Lew Wallace and other Crawfordsville writers whose literary contributions won for Crawfordsville the title, the "Athens of Indiana."

Important in county, state, and national history is the name of Henry Smith Lane. Following illustrious military service in the Mexican War, Henry S. Lane became Governor of Indiana and United States Senator. In 1860 he was instrumental in the nomination of Abraham Lincoln for President. The Lane Home, headquarters of the Montgomery County Historical Society, is an important historical monument in Crawfordsville. We pay tribute to Henry Smith Lane, whose statesmanship contributed to the city's title, the "Athens of Indiana."

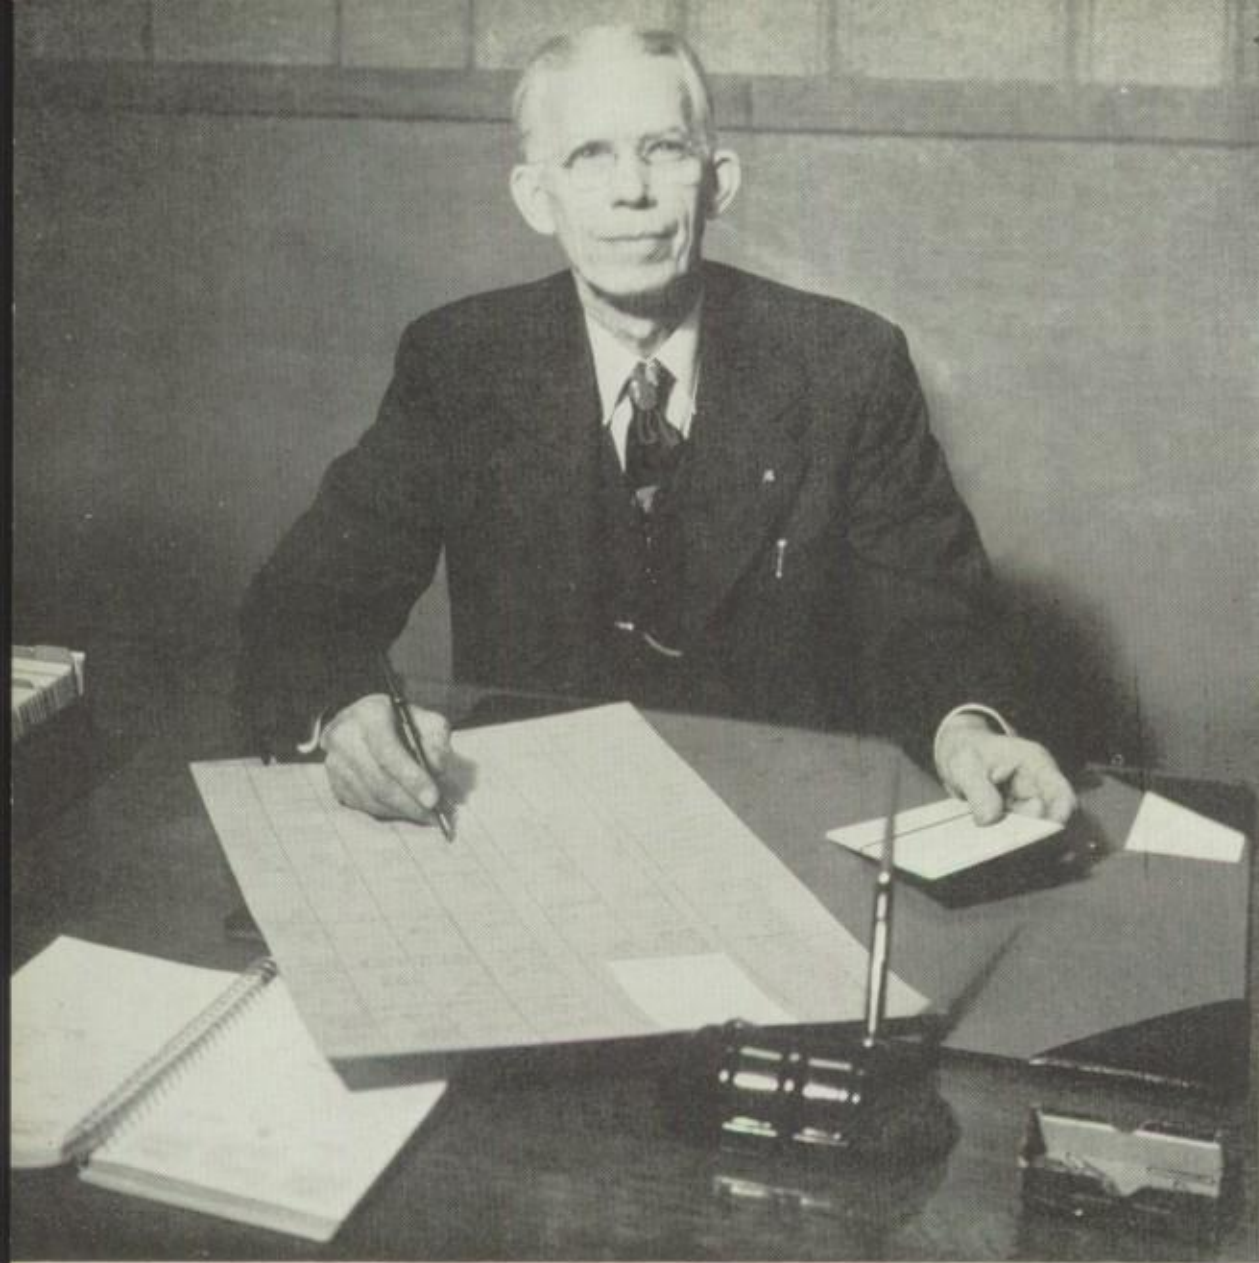

Wabash College, an outstanding liberal arts school for boys, was established in 1832, just nine years after the town of Crawfordsville was incorporated. Caleb Mills, the first acting professor of Wabash and the first state superintendent of public instruction, is known as the "father of education in Indiana." In one hundred and fifteen years of Wabash College history, many graduates have made notable contributions to literature, art, statesmanship, and education. We pay tribute to Wabash College, whose educational standards helped earn for Crawfordsville the title, the "Athens of Indiana."

As a public institution Crawfordsville High School is seventy-four years old. The first high school building, a three story square brick structure with a dome, was erected in 1873. Following a fire in 1892, the school was rebuilt in the same year. The present building was constructed in 1910, with the newest addition being built in 1939. In three quarters of a century, Crawfordsville High School has maintained high educational standards for the youth in the "Athens of Indiana."

KARL C. JAMES

DEDICATION

In the history of the "Athens of Indiana," those who have made noteworthy contributions to the cultural interests of Crawfordsville have been men and women who have served the community unselfishly. Such a man is Karl C. James, who has been engaged in the teaching profession for forty-six years. He has served as class-room teacher, county superintendent of schools, and principal of the junior high school. In recognition of his many devoted years of service to the youth of Crawfordsville, we are proud to dedicate to Karl C. James our 1947 ATHENIAN.

TO THE GRADUATING CLASS OF 1947

I sincerely express my appreciation to you for the honor you have granted to me in this dedication.

While you have had many sacrifices to pay, I trust you have been grateful to your parents and teachers, who have been considerate and patient in giving you the opportunity to gain your education.

Your faith in your homes and your school is the basis of the confidence with which you face the future.

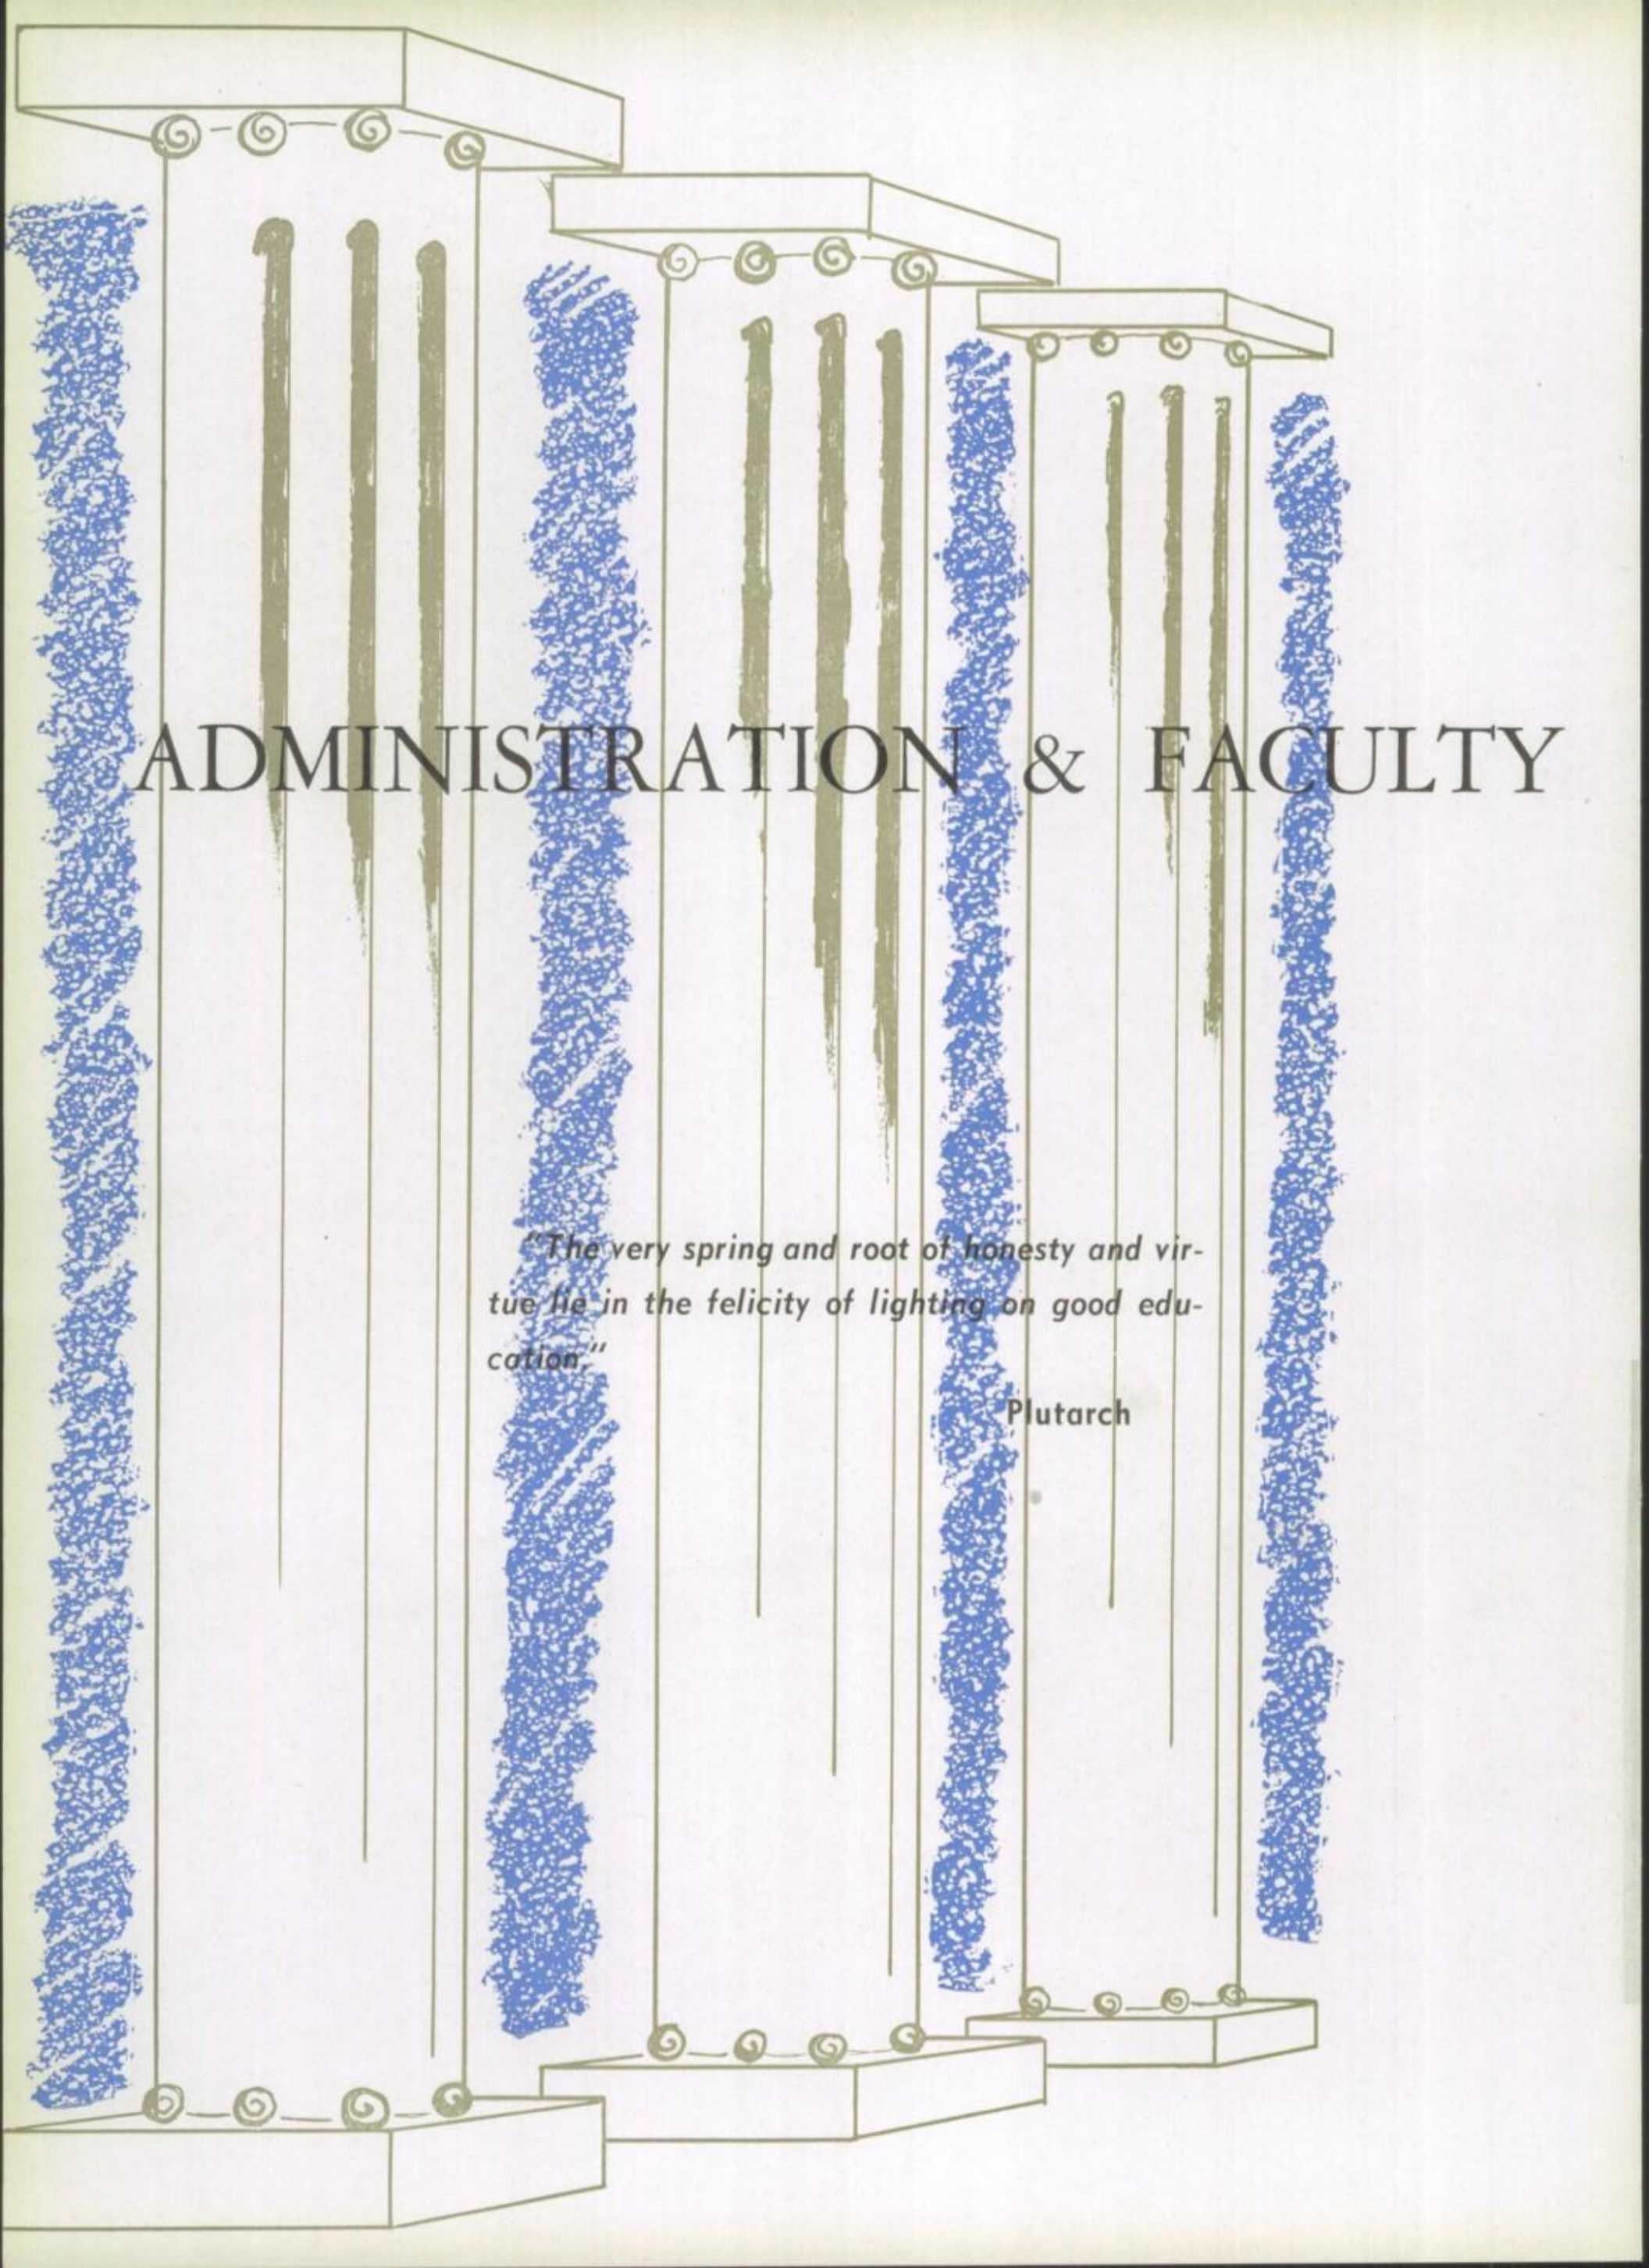

C. H. S. . . . what happy days we have spent with you, a true and sincere friend! We are sorry these days must end.

Boys and girls, it is my sincere wish that your training in the basic principles of Character, Scholarship, Leadership, and Service will enable you to go forth and serve your fellow man with much joy and happiness.

Success to you.

Sincerely,

KARL C. JAMES

ADMINISTRATION & FACULTY

"The very spring and root of honesty and virtue lie in the felicity of lighting on good education."

Plutarch

SUPERINTENDENT

Mr. Gerald Alexander became Superintendent of Crawfordsville City Schools, June 15, 1946. As superintendent he determines and maintains policies; serves as contact between school board and teachers and public; formulates budgets; and acts as professional leader for teachers.

SCHOOL BOARD

The Crawfordsville School Board convenes monthly to confer on problems pertinent to the best interests of the schools of the city and to promote plans to maintain high educational standards.

MR. GEORGE MANSON, President

MR. MELVIN MALLERY, Secretary

DR. LLOYD HOWELL, Treasurer

L. J. C. Freeman

Noah Webster defines the word "principal" merely as "the head of a school." In Crawfordsville High School this definition has proved inadequate. The definition should include "interest," "friend," "help," and "guide," for these words are characteristic of our own senior high school principal. For many years Mr. Freeman has been the friend and guide of all high school students and has taken a sincere interest in helping them to the utmost of his ability. Mr. Freeman's service to the students began when he served as mathematics teacher and high school basketball coach. His influence broadened in scope when he became senior high school principal in 1930.

P R I N C I P A L S

K. C. James

For many years Crawfordsville High School has had as one of its best friends our present junior high school principal, Mr. James. The senior high students remember Mr. James as the man who helped them build a solid foundation of good study habits, good sportsmanship, and courtesy. The junior high school students know him as their close friend and constant help. Mr. James has been an educator in Crawfordsville High School for many years, first as a social studies teacher in 1921, and now as principal of the junior high school.

The columns are drawn with thin black outlines. On either side of the columns, there are vertical borders filled with a dense, blue, textured pattern, resembling a fine stipple or a dense collection of small dots. STUDENT COUNCIL

The Student Council's year has been filled with the planning and producing of projects for the welfare of the student body. The main idea which the representatives put into action was that of student talent programs. The programs featured the best in musical and verbal variety for the students' entertainment once a month. The other type of student council-sponsored programs was those in which a representative from the adult citizens of Crawfordsville participated.

During the year the Council scheduled the pep-sessions, the after-the-game dances, and the auditorium programs for the next year. The council gave assistance to Junior Red Cross and supervised yell-leader elections and the organization of new clubs.

SUNSHINE SOCIETY

The poem, "Others," signifies the purpose of Sunshine girls in their relationship with all people. To serve and to live for others is their opportunity, and the Sunshine members have made the most of it in the 1946-1947 school year. This year the Sunshine girls were able to send Christmas food baskets, clothing, and toys to almost 500 people. The cheer boxes brightened the Christmas days of 150 people, lonely or ill.

Another opportunity to serve others was met last fall when our members were host to the other Sunshine girls from twenty-eight schools for the Sunshine District I Convention on November 9. The Christmas program and the Dad n' Daughter Chili Supper were the other highlights of the year.

The officers of Sunshine were: Agnes Nussis, president; Susan Sharpless, vice-president; Joan Klinger, secretary; and Barbara Fortney, treasurer. The sponsors were Mrs. Biddle, Miss Schweitzer, Miss Blackford, and Miss Dunagan.

ATHENIAN BOOSTER CLUB

Representing all the boys of grades 10, 11, and 12, the Athenian Booster Club supported the rules and regulations of the school. They also organized and managed many of the social functions.

A. B. C. sponsored the first fall all-school dance and followed this by many other activities through the year such as the school patrol, the annual basketball game between seniors and underclassmen after tourneys, and the annual spring banquet for the retiring officers of the club.

SPEECH ARTS

The Speech Arts Club was reorganized this year. Joyce Cook was appointed temporary chairman until the constitution could be written and tryouts could be held. Then the following officers were elected: Lee Dinwiddie, president; Margery MacDaniel, vice-president; and Nancy Resoner, secretary-treasurer. The membership was composed of students who met one of the following qualifications: (1) a member of public speaking class; (2) a contestant in a speech contest; (3) a member of the cast of a school play; or (4) a winner in tryouts.

Regular meetings of the club were held each month with programs presented by members of the club or by outside speakers.

Two plays were presented before the student body during the year. The first, People Don't Change, was given in December, and the second, Double Exposure, was presented in April.

SENIOR HONOR SOCIETY

The highest honor and greatest recognition a Crawfordsville High School student can desire is election to the Senior National Honor Society. To be chosen for this organization means that your classmates and the people around you know that you represent the four virtues of scholarship, leadership, character, and service.

Officers for the year were: Charles Price, president; Barbara Little, vice president; Beulah Sperry, secretary; and Agnes Nussis, treasurer. Mrs. Smith sponsored the organization.

LIBRARIANS

"Your work in the library will assist you to develop a desirable personality and will help to develop habits of forethought, promptness, cooperation, courtesy, and orderliness. It will also teach you to meet people and situations with poise." This is the message of Mr. Gabbert to his school librarians. They have well proved his statement.

During the year they checked the circulation of books, checked films, sent overdue notices, repaired books, and prepared new books for circulation.

PLUS ULTRA

This year the Plus Ultra Club chose their names after those of Greek gods and goddesses. They sat bewildered while President Manson (Minerva) read her inaugural speech in Latin and then wrote it on the board for them to translate.

Sybilla Altissima et Pontentissima (highest and most powerful teacher) sponsored a Roman banquet. Mrs. Mielke also taught the class the Roman equivalent of bridge and had them work several crossword puzzles.

SPANISH CLUB

Si, señoritas y señores, the Spanish Club began its activities for the year with a party featuring Dr. Jose Gallardo as its honored guest. Dr. Gallardo gave a "muy interesante" lecture on inter-American relations. The other monthly meetings of the Spanish Club featured a Christmas party, celebrated in true Mexican style, and the study of South American culture.

The officers for the year were: Agnes Nussis, president; Philip Manly, vice-president; and Joan Klinger, secretary-treasurer. The sponsor was Seniorita Brunk.

FUTURE FARMERS OF AMERICA

The Future Farmers of America, under the leadership of their sponsor, Mr. Cross, worked hard this year on their special project, the agricultural Public Speaking and Essay Contest. The senior boys in the organization directed their hopes and energies toward the DeKalb Agricultural Achievement Award, which was presented to Phil Cox on the basis of scholarship and interest in agricultural activities.

Officers of F. F. A. were Leland Wilkinson, president; Carter Willis, vice president; Wayne Kessler, secretary; and Phil Cox, treasurer.

AUDIO VISUAL AIDES

The Audio Visual Aides operated the projection machine for all the movies shown in the lunch room during the year. Mr. Jackson, who was in charge of equipment, trained the aides in the operation of the projector. Mr. Gabbert scheduled and classified instructional films.

CHEER LEADERS

On the other end of those familiar megaphones this year were our peppy yell leaders wearing their handsome new blue sweaters with gold megaphone designs. The yell leaders and the Gold and Blue sponsored a yell contest. Thirty-two yells were submitted, and seven were chosen to be used. Jack Reichard and Fred Bennett won first and second prizes, which were donated by the G. A. A.

COLOR GUARD

Each year five representative Boy Scouts are given the privilege of carrying our school colors and the American flag at the football games, basketball games, and all other general assemblies. Lester Long acted as sergeant-at-arms for the group. Robert Shuler represented Boy Scouts; Paul Porter, Explorer Scouts; Lester Long, James Long, and Burton Hofferth, Sea Scouts.

GOLD AND BLUE

The Gold and Blue, now a weekly publication, has been the object of constant changes this year, but as usual the capable staff pulled the paper out on top to make it the vital organ of our school life. Its policy, "to support all student activities," was successfully carried out during our 1946-1947 school year.

UP-N-ATOM CLUB

This very active group of twenty-six members had some interesting experiments, talks, and slide projection pictures. Later in the year they took several field trips to Donnelleys, the Bell Telephone Company, the City Light and Power Plant, and other spots of local interest. Drawing on this experience, the Up-N-Atom club gave an auditorium program near the last of the year.

PALETTEIRS

The enterprising Paletteirs have made their club one of the most active organizations in school. Perhaps you all remember the small Christmas "Gift store" in the front hall that sold everything from hand-made greeting cards to apples and doughnuts for between-meal snacks. That store was a Paletteir project.

The energetic officers of this organization were: Gloria Quisenberry, president; Marilyn Harding, vice-president; and Anora Stewart, secretary-treasurer. Its sponsor was Miss Martin.

SENIOR G. A. A.

The Senior Girls' Athletic Association spent an active year under the leadership of its officers, Barbara Armantrout, president; Emma Ward, vice-president; and Mary Elliott, secretary-treasurer. The sponsor was Miss Dunagan.

The Sports Style Show, which the organization presented last fall, gave all the girls in junior-senior high tips about the "right thing to wear." One of the "right things" was a blue and gold jockey cap which the G. A. A. girls sold to the spectators during the entire basketball season.

The other outside activities, the traditional valentine dance and a girls' public volley-ball game, plus the regular sports two days a week including basketball, volley-ball, tumbling, and softball, kept the G. A. A. members on wheels!

JUNIOR DRAMATICS

Junior high school dramatic students can begin getting experience in acting and in producing plays by entertaining their classmates. The forty members this year under the guidance of Mr. Moore, Mrs. Mielke, and Mr. Gabbert gave a Christmas play and followed it by two other plays later in the year.

NATIONAL JUNIOR HONOR SOCIETY

The four qualities of scholarship, character, leadership, and service must be found in every student chosen by the faculty for this honor. The scholarship qualification is a ninety per cent average while carrying at least four subjects.

The officers elected were: Robert Stiller, president; Donald Whalen, vice-president; Richard Stout, secretary; and Beverly Birch, treasurer. Mrs. Biddle, Mrs. Long, Mr. Burns, and Mr. Biddle sponsored the group.

JUNIOR G. A. A.

Our Junior G. A. A.'s favorite activity is always a picnic; so there were picnics in abundance in 1946-47. Most of the picnic lunches were eaten on blankets in the girls' gym because old man weather wouldn't let the girls go outside. However, the weather did permit a bike-hike in the fall.

The weekly meetings increased the girls' skill and knowledge of important girls' sports—basketball, softball, tumbling, and volley ball.

The officers for the year were: Patsy Livingston, president; Phyllis Hudson, vice-president; and Peggy Cedars, secretary-treasurer. The sponsor was Miss Wiley.

HOSPITAL AIDES

Each evening two to five girls went to the hospital to carry trays to hospital patients. They also worked on second and third floors and rolled bandages. These volunteer workers were: Lois Elliott, Dorothy Fagan, Betty Toth, Marian Swidan, Winifred Henderson, Maxine Blessing, Anna Heater, Doris Nunan, Mildred Isenberg, Peggy Lewellen, Wanda McCollum, Patsy Boots, Patsy Bayless, Barbara Hudson, Phyllis Titus, Onetia Fisher, Louise Arnold, Lorraine Smith, Alberta Hamilton, Juanita Nichols, Pat Grissom, Lillian Coahran, Patty Cramer, Joyce Hill, Helen Harvey, Betty Thomas, Helen Steele, Barbara Willoughby, Margaret Biggs, Joan Biggs, Nancy Reichard, Libby Luster, Trillis Harper, Louise Birge, Carol Williams, Patricia Foster, Mary Harwood, Phyllis Breeden, Alice Harboldt, Roberta Jones, Carolyn Haslam, Elsie Largent, Anna Stump, Ann Weliver, and Doris Wilson.

Crawfordsville High School placed third in both boys' and girls' divisions of the Central Indiana Oratorical Contest held at Lebanon on November 21. Barbara Little represented the girls, and Oka Nichols represented the boys.

AMERICAN LEGION ORATORICAL CONTEST

Representing Crawfordsville High School, Lee Dinwiddie won first place in the district American Legion Oratorical contest on February 27. In the zone contest on March 14 he defeated contestants from St. Paul and Ben Davis. On March 28, Lee made a name for Crawfordsville High by winning the state finals at Frankfort. Representing Indiana, then he competed with five other state winners in a zone contest at Milwaukee on April 8.

ROTARY DISCUSSION CONTEST

Joyce Cook represented Crawfordsville High School on March 26 at Richmond, Indiana, to compete for honors in the Rotary Discussion Contest.

ANNA WILLSON ORATORICAL CONTEST

WABASH ORATORICAL CONTEST

On March 15 Lee Dinwiddie again won honors for C. H. S. in the Wabash Oratorical Contest. Lee won over contestants from Frankfort, Peru, Shortridge, and South Side of Fort Wayne.

DE PAUW ORATORICAL CONTEST

RESOLVED, That the federal government should provide a system of complete medical care available to all citizens at public expense.

That long and complicated statement was the match that lighted the eight firecrackers on the debate squad this year. The question of federal medicine was debated semi-weekly by the "A" team: Klinger, Dinwiddie, MacDaniel, and McCain; and the "B" team: Little, Riggs, Polley, and Lingeman.

Experience in debate taught these students to practice the fundamental elements of good sportsmanship, to think logically while speaking, and to be able to express their thoughts clearly and distinctly. This group with Mr. Moore, their sponsor, attended the Debate Conference at Purdue in December.

On March 14 the C. H. S. Debate Squad met that of Gerstmeyer High School of Terre Haute. Both the negative and the affirmative teams of C. H. S. were winners.

The C. H. S. debaters met Fowler High School on March 21 to determine the sectional winner in the Indiana State Debate League. The following week the winner met Shortridge in the regional competition.

QUILL AND SCROLL

The Quill and Scroll is an international honorary journalistic society whose purpose is to honor the literary interests and ability of qualified students.

The Crawfordsville Chapter was formed in the spring of 1946 when it elected three juniors and three seniors to receive its degrees. The members of Quill and Scroll were Julia Beebe, Sue Colvin, Richard Cooper, Martha Jo Dukes, Donna Fishero, Joan Klinger, Margery MacDaniel, Agnes Nussis, and Duane Stribling.

BOARD OF PUBLICATIONS

For the first time Crawfordsville High School has a Board of Publications. This board is composed of three student members elected from Quill and Scroll and the three faculty members representing the Gold and Blue, the Athenian, and the English department. This year's Board members were: Joan Klinger, president; Richard Cooper, vice-president; and Sue Colvin, secretary; Miss Arthur, Mr. Grider, and Mr. Moore.

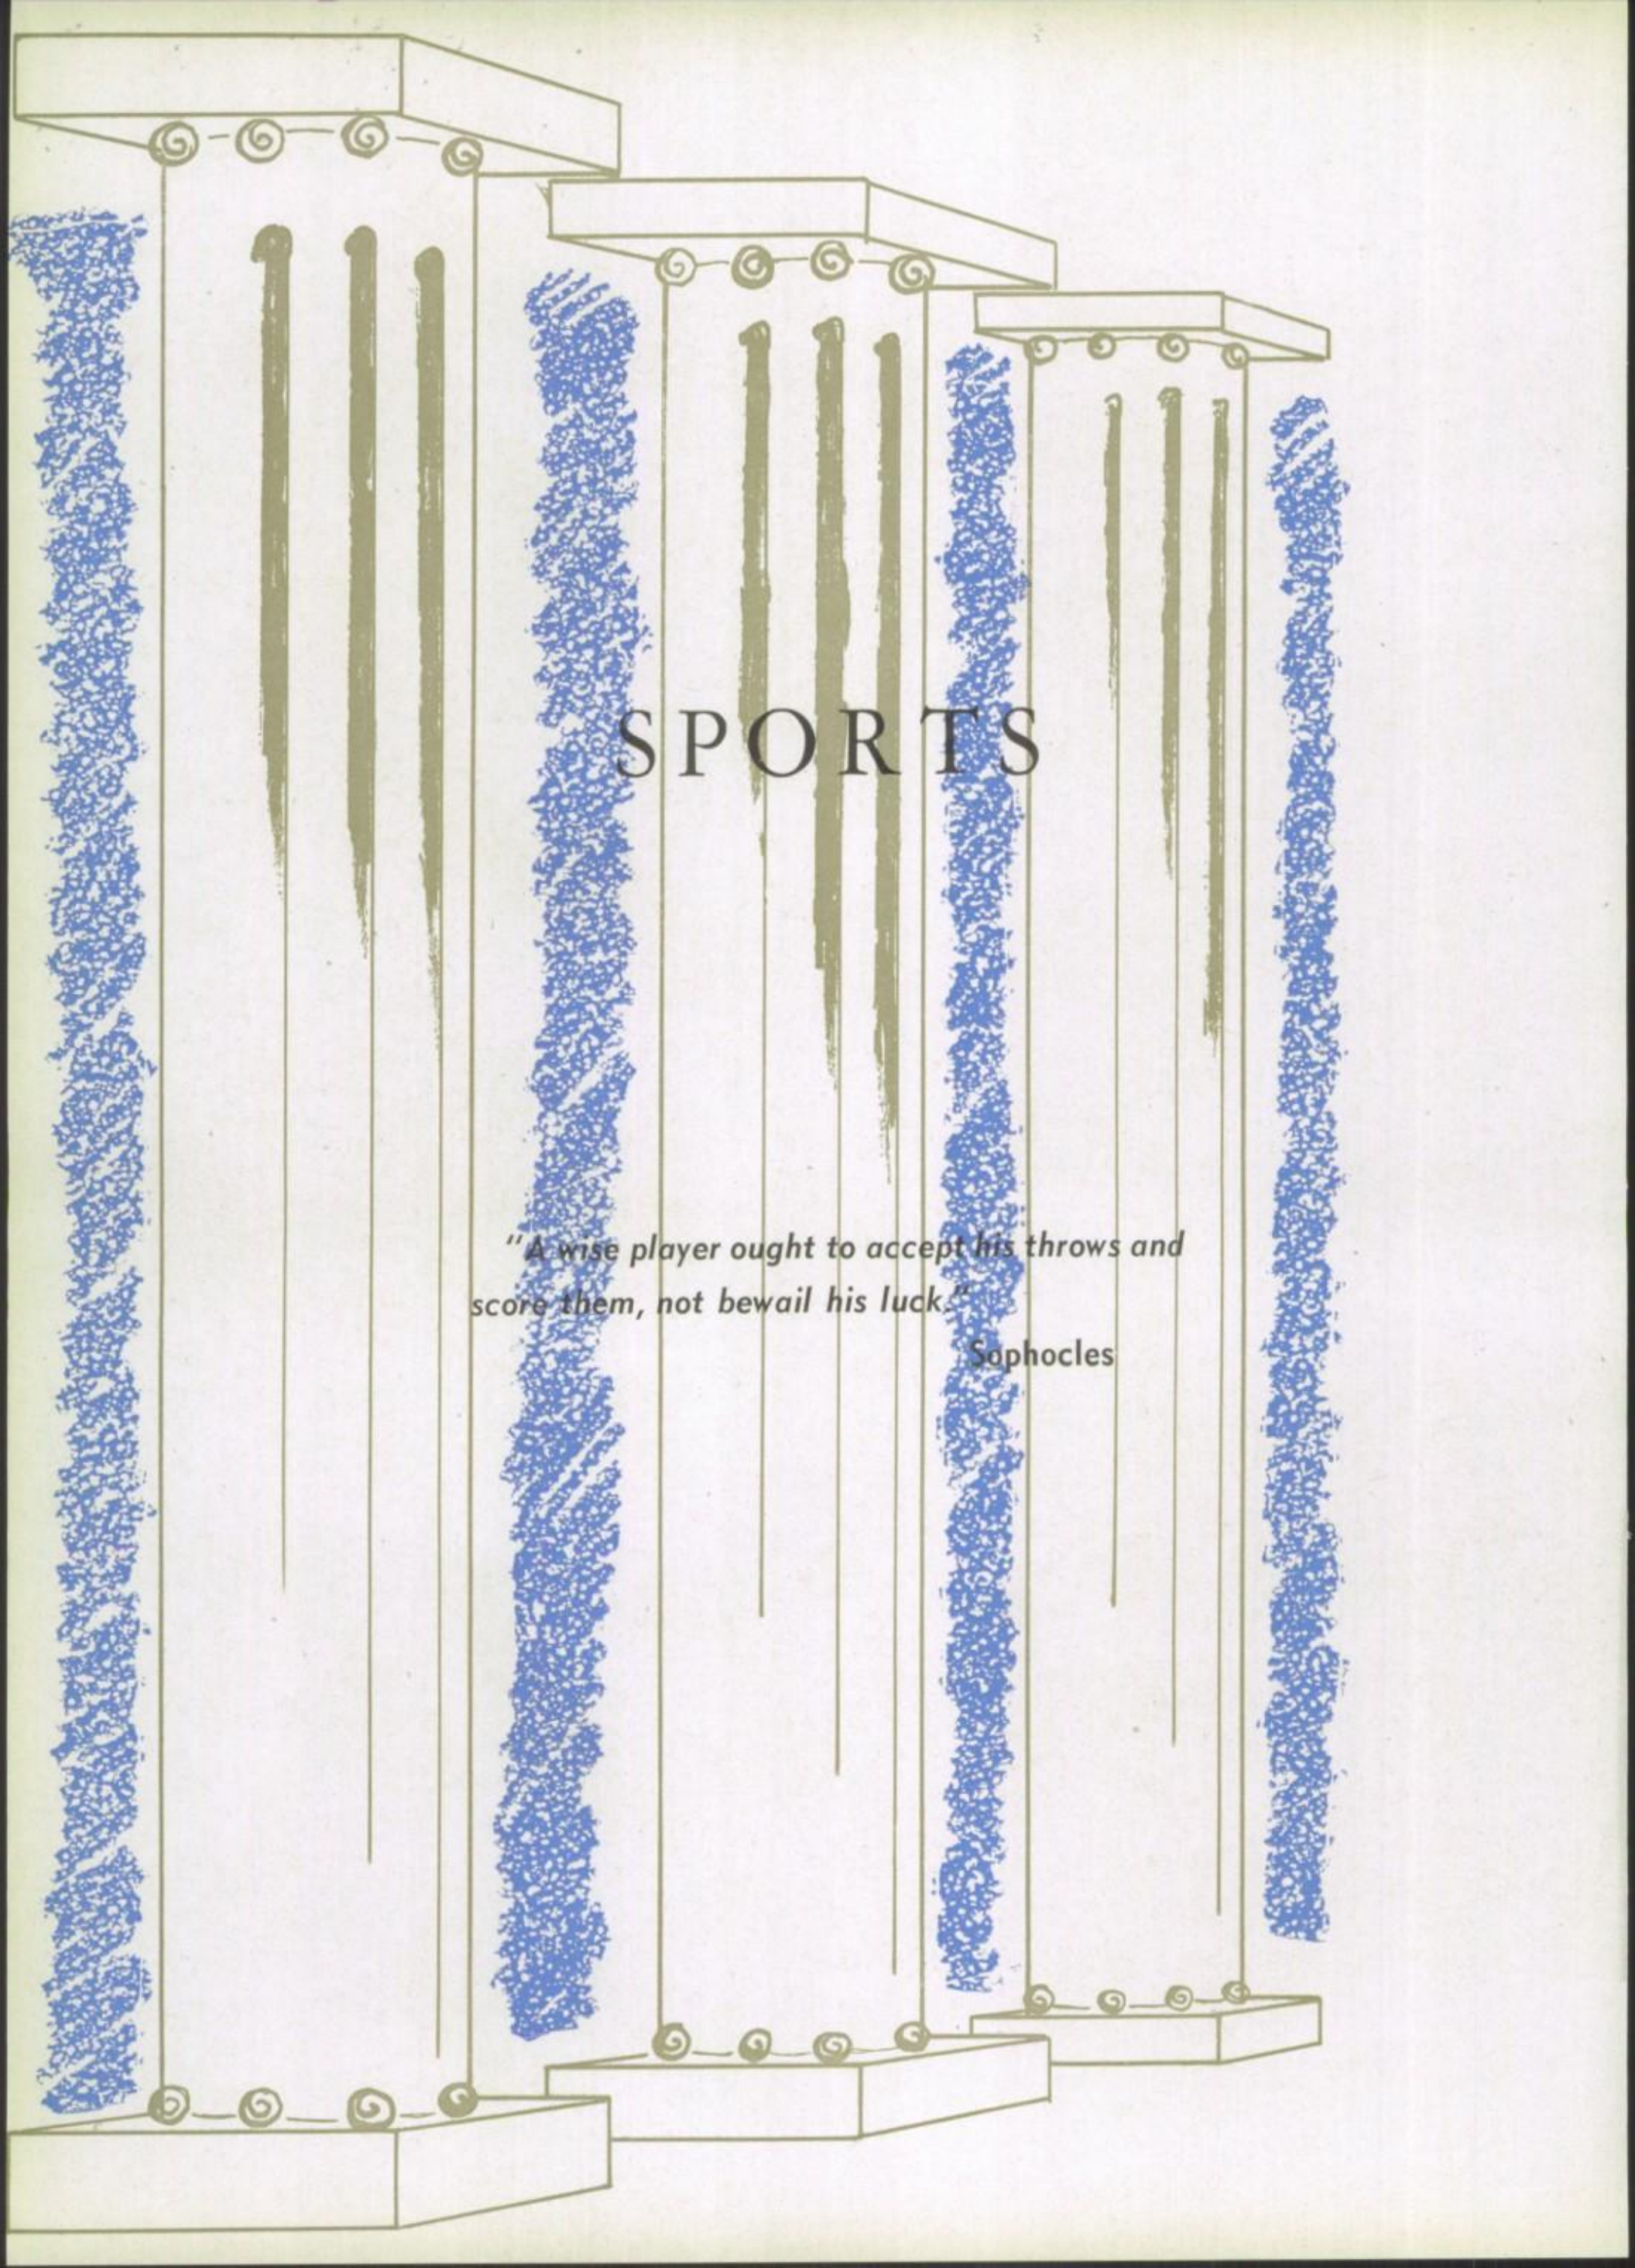

The duties of the Board of Publications are to elect the page editors and the business managers of the Gold and Blue, to stimulate literary interests of all students, and to see that the standards of all the publications are maintained.

Do you recognize these people and these places? Look closely, for you may find yourself. These are some of the snaps which were submitted by students and which portray some of the familiar scenes and groups around school.

SPORTS

FOOTBALL 1946

FRANKLIN—The Athenians journeyed to Franklin for their first game of the season. The C. H. S. gridgers were unable to stop the smooth passing and running attack of the Grizzly Cubs. Meanwhile frequent fumbles bogged down the Athenian offense, and the final score read—Franklin 34, Crawfordsville 7. Don Houston scored the lone touchdown while Stan Spears added the extra point.

SHELBYVILLE—A more experienced C'ville eleven went to Shelbyville for their second game of the year. The Athenian offense rolled up two touchdowns in the first half, and C. H. S. led at the intermission 12-0. However a scrappy Shelbyville came fighting back to take a 13-12 lead with 40 seconds to go. With time running out, Houston fired a pass to Toliver Kennedy in the end zone to give the Athenians a 19-13 victory. Kennedy had two touchdowns and Harwood one, with Spears adding one extra point.

NOBLESVILLE—In their first home game of the year, the Athenians overpowered a none too strong Noblesville team, 27-0. Coach Buckner ran in a host of substitutions in an effort to give every one a chance to play. Kennedy, Elliott, Churchill, and Lingeman each scored a touchdown, while Spears made good on three out of four attempted conversions.

WILEY—C. H. S. traveled to Terre Haute to face Wiley, one of the stronger teams of the state. Wiley took advantage of a serious C'ville relapse in the first quarter and scored two touchdowns. The Athenians could not overcome the disadvantage, and the final score was Wiley 20, C. H. S. 6. Elliott made the only score for Crawfordsville. Charlie Price, Athenian right end, suffered a fractured collar-bone and was lost for the season.

SHERIDAN—In their last game on the road, the Athenians were in great form and downed Sheridan, 26-0. The accurate passing of Houston and a smooth running attack was too much for a stubborn Sheridan eleven. Kennedy accounted for two touchdowns while Elliott and Gardner scored the other two. Spears added two points after touchdowns.

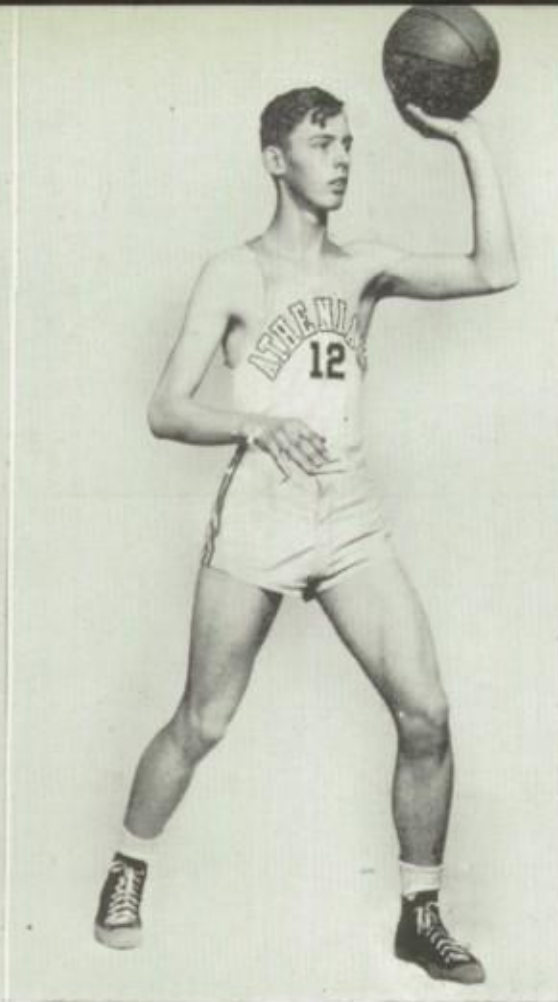

WEST SIDE—The Athenians met a powerful West Side crew and nearly upset the favored Red Devils before an enthusiastic crowd. Trailing 6-0 at the half, C. H. S. came fighting back to tie the score on a quarter back sneak by Houston. The try for the extra point was wide, and the game ended in a 6-6 tie.

KIRKLIN—A big and rough Kirklin team came to town and was defeated by the Athenians, 14-0. That victory gave C. H. S. a record of four won, two lost, and one tied. Elliott scored both touchdowns, and Spears added the extra points. The Athenians were without the services of Kennedy, who was injured in the West Side game.

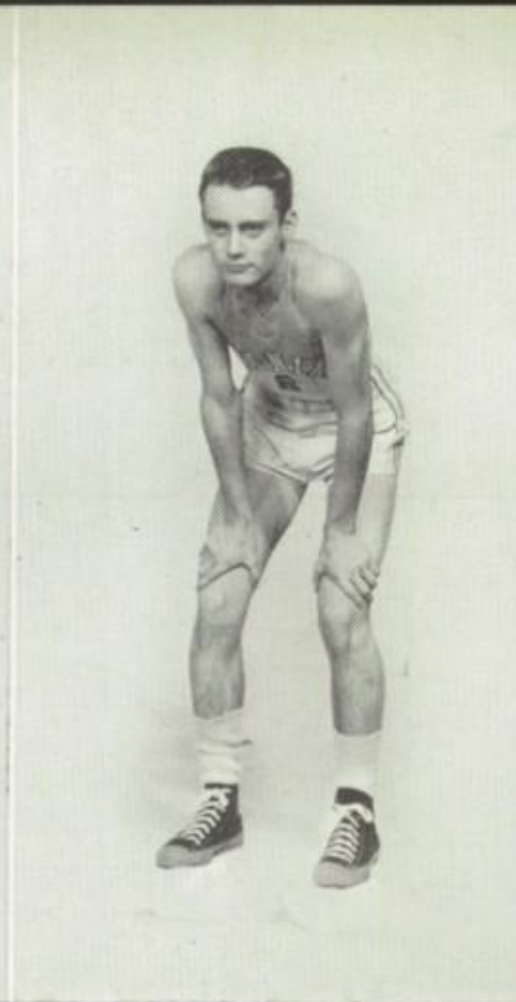

JEFFERSON—The Athenians closed the season against their old rival, Jeff. Everything seemed to go wrong for C. H. S., and the Bronchos rolled to an easy victory. The Athenians did not score until late in the game, when Kennedy grabbed a pass in the end zone. The attempted conversion was blocked, but Spears scooped up the ball and ran it across for the extra point. The final score, with Jeff the winner, was 39-7.

BASKETBALL 1946-'47

BLOOMINGTON—The local boys continued their good work by defeating a rugged Panther five, 38-25.

JEFFERSON—The mighty Bronchos of Lafayette hung the first loss of the season on our Athenians in a hard fought game, 42-35.

LEBANON—A rugged Tiger defense proved to be the deciding factor in a game that found the Athenians on the short end of a 29-23 score.

GREENCASTLE—Although not in the best of form, the Athenians managed to score a 34-28 victory over Greencastle.

BRAZIL—Unable to overcome an early Brick lead, C'ville dropped a very close game, 34-32.

GARFIELD—The Athenians fell before a taller and faster team as the Purple Flyers of Garfield raced to a 48-30 victory.

NEW YEAR'S DAY TOURNEY—The Athenians played host to Bloomington, Lebanon, and Noblesville in the second annual New Year's Day Tourney. Crawfordsville walked off with honors as they downed Lebanon 36-34 in the afternoon game and trimmed Bloomington that night 32-28.

WEST LAFAYETTE—Coach Buckner used his reserves exclusively in this game and was well pleased as they walked off with a 34-29 victory.

SOUTH SIDE—The Archers of Fort Wayne had too much for our boys and breezed to a 50-31 triumph.

CLINTON—After leading most of the second half, the Athenians gave way to a late Clinton rally and lost their second game in a row, 39-32.

WASHINGTON—The Crawfordsville losing streak was extended to three in a row as they dropped a 56-41 decision to a red-hot Washington five.

FRANKLIN—The Athenians showed a lot of improvement in their next game with a decisive 41-26 win over Franklin.

LEBANON—Still unable to get a winning streak started, the Athenians dropped a heart-breaker to Lebanon, 34-29.

MARTINSVILLE—The Athenian offense really hit its stride against the Artesians, and C. H. S. coasted in to a 56-48 victory.

ATTICA—An overconfident Crawfordsville team could not stop a second half scoring splurge by Attica and lost a very close game, 38-37.

JEFFERSON—The Athenians played what was probably their best ball game of the year against Jeff. They battled the Bronchos on even terms all the way before bowing, 38-31.

SHORTRIDGE—In their last game of the season, the Athenians lost to Shortridge, 32-26. The superior height of the Blue Devils proved to be the deciding factor.

SECTIONAL TOURNAMENT

The Athenians encountered very little opposition in their first two games of the Sectional. They crushed Wingate in the first game 91-19, and overwhelmed Alamo in the second, 56-24. However in their third game they ran into a red-hot five from New Market and were forced to go all out to gain a 46-37 decision. Then in the final game the Athenians led Ladoga all the way and won the Sectional Crown by a 38-24 score.

REGIONAL TOURNAMENT

In their first game of the Regional at Clinton, the Athenians gained an easy 45-26 victory over Greencastle. This victory sent them to the finals against Clinton, who previously had eliminated a stubborn Covington, 31-28. Some little "gremlin" must have put a lid over the Crawfordsville basket, for the ball seemingly would not go through for our Athenians. Nevertheless they battled every inch of the way before losing out to Clinton's Wildcats, 44-37.

WRESTLING

This year the local grapplers won five matches while losing two, both to Bloomington. The stalwarts who led this year's team to victory and who are graduating this year are Lamb, Dinwiddie, Starnes, and Patton.

Lamb was the only local grappler to grab off a state championship this year. He did it in the 165 pound class. Dinwiddie placed second in the 128 pound class; Starnes in the 120; Hinton in the 103; and Willis in the 95. All placed fourth in the state meet.

Crawfordsville finished fifth in the State Wrestling Meet with 21 points, while Bloomington walked off with top honors and 58 points.

The season record was: C. H. S.—50, Jeff.—6; C. H. S.—26, Southport—25; C. H. S.—8, Bloomington 40; C. H. S.—46, Jeff.—7; C. H. S.—11, Bloomington—33; C. H. S.—29, Southport—15; C. H. S.—25, Central (Muncie)—15.

TENNIS

Tennis, returning to our school after a wartime absence, sprung back into the news under the capable hand of Mr. Moore. Although the team lost all of their matches, the members gained valuable experience.

Scores: C. H. S.—3, Greencastle—4; C. H. S.—0, Garfield (Terre Haute)—6; C. H. S.—3, West Lafayette—4; C. H. S.—0, Wiley (Terre Haute)—6; C. H. S.—0, Garfield (Terre Haute)—6.

GOLF

The golf team under the tutelage of Coach Buckner won two, lost two, and tied one match. Hesler and Orr were the mainstays of the team, with the other positions on the team being trusted to less capable hands. The match scores were: C. H. S.—8, Garfield (Terre Haute)—7½; C. H. S.—7½, Shortridge—7½; C. H. S.—13½, West Lafayette—1½; C. H. S.—5, Wiley (Terre Haute)—7; C. H. S.—6½, Garfield (Terre Haute)—8½.

BASEBALL

Baseball came back to C. H. S. after an absence of seventeen or eighteen years. Under the capable coaching of Bill Chase, the team won five straight with Houston and Beeson doing the pitching chores while Elliott caught all the games. After winning their first five, the Athenians lost three by wide margins.

The scores were as follows: C. H. S.—10, Greencastle—6; C. H. S.—4, Jeff—2; C. H. S.—15, Greencastle—0; C. H. S.—13, Frankfort—4; C. H. S.—5, Lebanon—4; C. H. S.—4, Jeff—15; C. H. S.—3, Frankfort—6; C. H. C.—3, Lebanon—18.

Rogers came through with the only home run of the season.

Houston and Beeson, pitching most of the season for the Athenians, came up with final pitching records of three won and two lost, and two won and one lost respectively.

BAND

The Band began its activities on September 8, by performing for the Eagles at a picnic held in Milligan Park. During the year, the Band played for such functions as the football games at home and away, the Halloween parade, and basketball games including the sectional. The regular Band or the Pep Band played for every pep session. Following the custom of several years, the Band played for Commencement, Memorial Day Services, summer concerts at Milligan Park, and for the Flag Day Services at the Elks.

On two occasions the Band traveled out of town to make their appearance. Bloomington was the scene of their first out-of-town performance at which place they played for the football game between Indiana University and Iowa. On February 4 the Band journeyed to Martinsville to play for the Martinsville-Crawfordsville basketball game.

Two of the six concerts which the Band gave this year were without charge to show appreciation to the public for their marvelous response in donating to the Band during its drive for new uniforms. A "special free concert" was given on March 25 in which the members wore their new uniforms for the first time.

For the fourth year the organization of the Band was based on a military theme with officers as follows: Captain, Richard Robinson; Drum Major, Robert Eyler; First Lieutenant of brass and percussions, Philip Shields; First Lieutenant of woodwinds, Collins Wallace; Master Sergeant of brass and percussions, Harold Wright; Master Sergeant of woodwinds, Maryann Shuler; Quartermaster, Neil Gatliff; Student director, Philip Shields; Assistant student director, Gordon Henry. Hats off to our parents who have blazed the trail for us in old C. H. S. They have stood by; they have helped us in whatever endeavor we have pursued. We thank them for all that they have done for us. We wish that we had had pictures of all our moms and dads. We hope that these pictures will carry all alumni back to the year of their graduation.

CALENDAR

"Gee, Jack, remember when we were seniors at C. H. S.? We had so much fun."

"Sure, I remember, Peggy. We started back to school in September. Something new had been added—Home Room had leaped into the middle of the morning and changed its name to Activities Period. All the clubs, including two new ones, the Music Club and a revived debate squad, squabbled for meeting time. Franklin arrived for the first football game, only to defeat us, 34-7."

"But the next game was better, Jack. Kilroy, the Gold and Blue goat, was dragged in as official mascot. Senior cords appeared en masse to cheer the team to a 27-0 victory over the Noblesville Millers. Sunshine, as usual, started off with a bang—the big get-together picnic. There were enough hot dogs to feed an army!"

"Remember the class elections? All the other classes elected officers in one day; but not the seniors—we took a week! The Shelbyville game was a bitter fight. We won, 19-13."

OCTOBER

"The West Side game wound up in a 6-6 tie. That night we dragged out our old (?) clothes and went to the Harvest Hop. Speech Arts finally decided to let us amateurs try out for membership. When our band played for the Indiana-Iowa game at Bloomington, the radio announcer thought our gold and blues were the gold and blacks of Iowa State. Since the faithful old uniforms were wearing out, Mr. Spaulding launched a drive for new ones."

"And don't forget that party at Mr. Plummer's for the Gold and Blue staff. The last game of the football season was lost to Jeff by a terrific score, 39-7. The old school was all spruced up for Open House. Finally—the teachers trooped off to the state convention and left us with two whole days of vacation!"

"The Sunshine District Convention was held here, Jack. All the new C'ville members were initiated in a model initiation. Everyone turned out for the first basketball game. It was a close one, too—Frankfort, 36; C'ville, 33. The senior girls peddled ice cream at the half. The Gold and Blue was sorry to lose Mr. Plummer."

"That was the month the 'Joes' and 'Janes' haunted the underclassmen with cries of, 'Have you bought your Athenian?' When you girls won the selling campaign, we threw a party. Johnny (Ginny Simms) Meek crooned, and Ralph Elliott, prize salesman, got the turkey, alive and squawking! Jeff beat us 42-35. Eunis Podis gave a piano concert. We took two days out for Thanksgiving."

DECEMBER

"Oh, yes, Jack, and you sang in the Christmas Concert along with the rest of chorus, band, and orchestra. G.A.A. gave a style show—for girls only! Myrt and Susie showed us the right way to dress for sports, and the wrong way, too! Lebanon broke its losing streak by a 6 point margin over our team, 29-23. Senior Honor Society inducted new members."

"So did Quill and Scroll. The debate squad had a very full day at the Debate Forum at Purdue. Those doughnuts the Paletteirs sold—umm—umm. They had just about everything in that Xmas booth. We saw People Are Funny in the Christmas program, and some of the fellows helped you "Sunshiners" deliver baskets. With carols still ringing in our ears, off we went for vacation—Christmas was here!"

JANUARY

"We took off in a body for Lebanon; but in spite of all the cheering, the Tigers rallied in the last quarter and won, 34-29."

"But we beat them and everyone else in the New Year's tourney, Peggy! Then came trouble—semester tests! Before we knew it, the first semester was over, and half our senior year was gone. The girl athletes played a double-header volley-ball game. As usual, the seniors came out on top. For two weeks it was suits and dresses vs. caps and gowns. We finally agreed to wear blue caps and gowns for both Commencement and Baccalaureate."

FEBRUARY

"The Attica pep session was really something, Jack. While the faculty rooted for Attica, two girls' ball teams showed us how the game should have ended. Too bad it didn't. Something pretty special at the half—our drum majorettes gave a twirling show with fancy acrobatics. After the game was the G. A. A.—Alumni Valentine Dance. Allen Pierson and Beulah Sperry were crowned King and Queen of Hearts. We had a taste of real opera when Piero Pierotic sang a scene from Rigoletto. In a pep session we discovered Kilroy's true identity—Mr. Wells."

"We saw our last basketball game. Shortridge—32, Athenians—26. There was another school concert, this time to raise money for the new band uniforms. About time for new ones, too. Some of the more talented faculty members performed in a talent program. Wrestling had its big day, too. Our squad placed fifth in the state meet at Bloomington. And we passed our senior cards until we were blue in the face!"

MARCH

"We started off the month on the right foot by clinching the Sectional championship. Reward—a one day vacation. Then off we went to the Regionals at Clinton. The afternoon score with Greencastle was 45-26; but that evening we were overcome by Clinton, 44-37. A familiar odor drifted through the halls the day of the chili supper. Dads and daughters both had a swell time, Jack."

"Shouts could be heard from 204, where the District American Legion Oratorical Contest was held. Lee Dinwiddie took first place. 'To be or not to be.' The seniors in Lit class saw Hamlet at Purdue. Everyone but Miss Schweitzer had a sniffle the next morning."

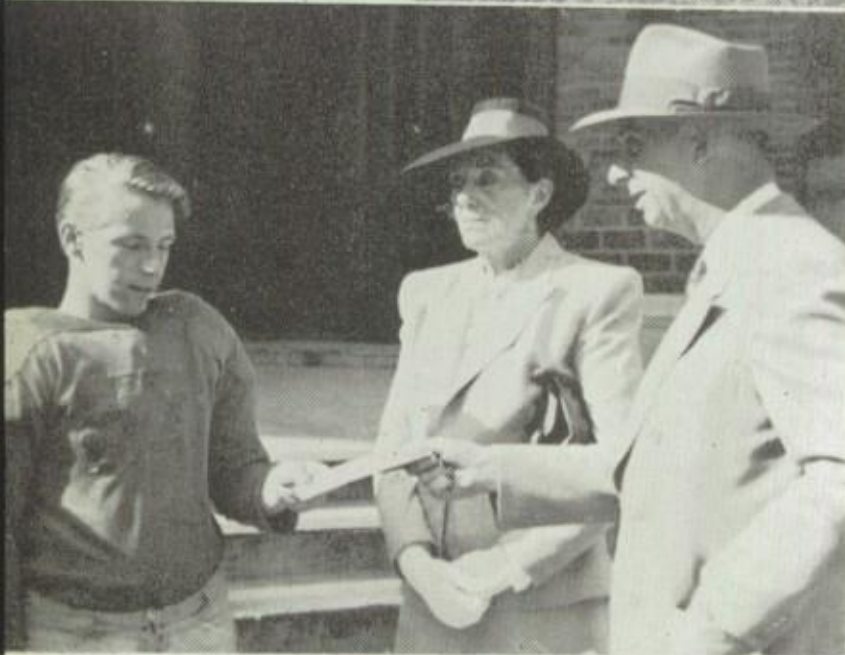

APRIL

"Then senior 'doings' came thick and fast, Jack. The senior bus took us to Terre Haute for the State Music Contest. I was simply petrified with stage fright; but the judge gave me a first place, anyway. We had fun together on the bus to the Choral Festival. Spring vacation was a welcome breathing spell."

"Yes, and then Speech Arts presented another play, Double Exposure. The Junior-Senior Banquet was even better than last year's. The speakers had so many big ideas on 'Streamlining Education.' By this time practically everybody had recovered from the flu."

MAY

"After weeks of rehearsing we proudly presented our senior play, Best Foot Forward. The A.A.U.W. Banquet for senior girls was quite an event, too. Then we tramped over the trails of Turkey Run at the Senior Picnic."

"By that time, we had had our last class and settled back to enjoy Senior Week. It was a relief after the last mad rush at school, distributing Athenians and exchanging autographs. At last, Prom and Baccalaureate. And then—Commencement; the end of high school days and the start of something bigger! It's hard to remember that we're only alumni now!"

CUSTODIANS

We have many reasons to be proud of Crawfordsville High School, and one of the reasons is the neat appearance of the building and the grounds. The credit, of course, for such an appearance should go to the seven custodians, who are familiar figures around C. H. S.

These are the men who polish and clean during the summer as well as the winter. They are loyal Athenians who are always on hand when they are needed. It's the faithful custodian who opens and closes the building when we have night parties or games. When our locks and lockers get stubborn, pianos are to be moved, or special properties must be located, we always know where to go for a willing, helping hand—or rather fourteen of them.

Row 1: Walter Long, Henry Banks, Jacob Gerold, Roy Thompson.

Early in the year the Athenian staff announced that any student could submit snapshots for the year book. Many snaps were submitted with the result that there is a great variety of subjects. We wish to thank all students who turned in snaps to make this section of the book a success.
